Quarterly Report of the Executive Committee of the Reform Club.

To the President and Members of the Club:
BROTHERS: A most critical period in the history of our organization has been safely passed. The great wave of popular excitement upon which our craft was launched has abated. We have not strayed as our enemies predicted, and our friends feared, but are flat and riding the billows right gallantly.

Your committee, charged with the general oversight of the affairs of the club, would report that to almost every respect the plans adopted at the outset have proved wise and efficient.

The club rooms, kept constantly open as a place of public resort, have been of immense importance to us. We are confident that a large number of our men have spent their leisure time there who would otherwise have been drawn into the drinking places which abound in this city.

The Saturday night lunches have been continued during the entire quarter. Not less than 2,000 lunches have been furnished free. During the last month these have been served out exclusively by committees of ladies associated by the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

The public temperance meetings have been held for the most part at Sargent's Hall, and addresses have been delivered by Charlie Nye, James Cunningham, Rev. Dr. Finney, Mrs. Youmans, of Canada, and Rev. Dr. Bailey.

The weekly meetings of the club, held on Friday night, have been well attended, and the highest interest has been taken in the proceedings.

A Sunday afternoon meeting was instituted about two months ago, and speakers were invited to occupy the time. It has, however, become a regular temperance meeting of very considerable importance, and is in charge of the ministers of the city who are identified with the club. Mr. E. L. Van Aken has very kindly placed in the hall an excellent organ, to be used for a time at the Sunday meeting. Mr. James Frick is in charge of the singing.

The financial condition of the club is sound. After meeting the ordinary expenses of the organization, including the wages of a janitor, paying all the bills for the Saturday night lunches, the report of the treasurer will show at least a small balance on hand.

Our Wane—First. A convenient and commodious hall for large public meetings. With out this it is almost impossible to sustain and carry on very successfully the work of our reform among the masses
